1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. The Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA) is an independent organisation that was established by the Labour Relations Act of 1995 (LRA) to deliver dispute prevention and resolution services to the people of South Africa. The core mandate of the CCMA, as one of the organisations charged with implementing the LRA, is derived from the purpose of the LRA which, amongst others, is to advance economic development, social justice, labour peace, and the democratisation of the workplace.

2. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- 2.1. One of the strategic functions of the CCMA's Communications Sub-Unit under the Governance and Strategy Department, is to effectively communicate and strategically align stakeholder engagements with fundamental tools used by organisations to remain in touch with their constituencies and stakeholders and to enable better management of potential risks to reputational damage. In this light, the overarching objective of this Strategy is to ensure that the CCMA does not lose touch with those it serves, by ensuring that the principles of the organisation are communicated effectively and efficiently and promoted at all times.
- 2.2. In order to ensure effective and efficient internal and external communication the above-mentioned services are deemed a priority, the Communications Sub-Unit, therefore, needs to appoint the services of an editing company to provide the aforementioned services for all organisational documents (list provided is not exhaustive) thus strengthening and promoting effective communication internally and externally.

3. OBJECTIVE

3.1 To provide the services enlisted in the aforementioned applicable sections of this RFQ in order to assist the CCMA in fine-tuning its organisational documents to ensure synergy, content creativeness, and high-quality professional documents.

4. SCOPE OF WORK

4.1This is an RFQ for the appointment of editing, proofreading, reference, layout & formatting, and proofreading services for organisational documents document to support the objectives of CCMA's Communications Sub-Unit and organisational objectives.

4.2The service provider will be required to edit, format, proofread, reference and restructure the layout of documents, identified and produced by the Commission for Conciliation Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA). The below is a non-exhaustive list of the documents:

- National communications in the form of directives
- Organisational publications such as quarterly newsletters, Senior Management Team (SMT) speeches, high-level presentations, media statements, conference materials, stakeholder correspondence, opinion pieces, amongst others
- Internal policies and other key governance documents such as frameworks, standard operating procedures (SOPS), manuals, amongst others
- Training material, public education and advocacy awareness campaign slides, information sheets, amongst others
- Marketing material such as flyers, brochures, leaflets, and narratives posted on the CCMA's communications platforms, etc.
- Research/Library related documents such as proposals, reports, data collection tools, publications, and articles, amongst others
- Other CCMA related material identified during the duration of the agreement.

5. SPECIFICATIONS

- Speedy and yet meticulous turnaround times either as communicated by the project lead (Communications Sub-Unit) or within 48hours as determined by the volume of the documents submitted.
- Ability to multitask and deliver within the stipulated deadlines (no agreed upon deadlines should be missed)
- High-level expertise in business writing and professional editing skills
- Ability to consolidate various writing styles into one uniform style.
- Ability to effectively organise written material ensuring that there is a natural logical flow
- Ability to tailor-make editing and writing styles for different target audiences (e.g., EXCO written submissions will read differently to written submissions to the CCMA's Users)
- High-level expertise in referencing techniques (Harvard, APA, etc.)
- Ability to verify authenticity of work produced (originality of work) through plagiarism checks/software, where applicable

Tone detection

- Check for consistency of the writing style whilst fixing spelling and punctuation errors, grammatical errors, use of improper syntax and the affixing of CCMA terminology (Users vs Customers, etc)
- Editor to check English orthography.

The stylistic editing services

• Standardise the writing style and language style.

- Replace inappropriate words or phrases with the most appropriate ones and check the correctness of terminology used.
- Rectify issues of improper use of active or passive voice
- Formatting; paginating, indexing of the entire document in accordance with the Corporate Identity (CI) manual

Layout and Formatting

• Formatting and the overall layout of the document (margins, heading consistency, page numbers, active table of contents, footers, references, indexes, table of tables, figures, etc.

Submission format

- All edited/proofread documents must be submitted with track changes and with the clean version.
- All edited work in track changes and the clean version must be housed in the CCMA's shared repository for record purposes and archival purposes. This will be accessible only to the project lead.

6. COMMMITMENTS AND UNDERTAKING
